We consider fractional powers of non-negative operators in Banach spaces defined by means of the Balakrishnan operator. Under mild assumptions on the operator we show that the fractional powers can also be obtained by a generalised Dirichlet-to-Neumann operator for a Bessel-type differential equation.